Corie Allemand Joins Infrastructure Networks as Vice President – Production & Midstream Solutions

Remote communications industry veteran brings extensive technical sales leadership experience

HOUSTON, TX (August 30, 2022) — Infrastructure Networks, Inc. (“iNet”), a leading remote communications and IoT solutions provider to critical infrastructure industries, announced today that Corie Allemand has joined iNet as vice president – Production & Midstream Solutions. Based at iNet’s Houston headquarters, Allemand will be responsible for leading the technical sales team providing advanced connectivity solutions across field operations for the upstream production and midstream energy sectors.

“We are pleased to welcome Corie to the executive sales team,” said Hector J. Maytorena, iNet’s senior vice president for Customer Success. “I am confident that his background and experience give him the entire toolset required to meet and exceed the demanding needs of our enterprise customers.”

“I am excited to be joining the executive team at iNet”, said Allemand, adding “I look forward to contributing to the Company’s growth as we move forward.”

Allemand brings to iNet more than 25 years of sales leadership experience, providing critical technical solutions to companies in the energy sector. His previous work experience includes sales leadership roles at Stratus Technologies, Siemens Industry Inc., Stratos Offshore Services, Shell Pipeline and Datacomm. Allemand has a master’s degree in Business Communications from the University of Phoenix and he served proudly in the United States Marine Corps as a communications specialist.
